WAR NEWS.

(Special to Shanghai Mercury) THE TONGHAKS IN KOREA. YOKOHAMA, December 4th.

A telegram from Seoul dated the ard instant states that Count Incure is taking vigorous measures to restore internal order in Korea. The Tal-won-kun resigns his position as Government Adviser and there have also been other radical changes made in that department, as well as it the Interior, Justice and Educational Body.

A number of Japanere and Korean soldiers have been conveyed in transport steamers to Asan ; thence they marched to Konji, where they attacked and routed some thousands of Tong-haks. During the attack several hundreds of Tong-haks were killed.

THE JAPANESE COMMANDERS. Marshal Yamagata is in such ill-health that It has been decided he must be invalided. Imperial Message, has left for the front.

First Army Corps. Captain Miura, of the cruiser Yamoskiro, late Harbour Master of Sasebo, has been appointed Governor of Port Arthur.

LI HUNG-CHANG.

TIENTEIN, December 5th. Li Hung-chang has only been nominall stripped of other ranks and decorations, but he still retains full Viceregal power.

JAPAN AND KOREA.

YOKOHAMA. December 6th. The Korean Government having broken the promises it had given to follow the advice of Count Incure in the matter of Internal reforms. and having, after making a show of compliance. sent out secret messengers to incite a rising in the country. Count Incure has informed the Korean Foreign Office that the advice bitherto presented has been revoked; and has recalled the troops sent to repress the rising of the Tonghaks. Count Isouye's discovery of those underhanded dealings on the part of the Government has much disturbed the Palace. The flag-Korean Minister of the Interior has resigned.

LATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR. It is reported that Marshal Yamagata's move ments of the divisions of the First Japanese Army Corps indicate an intention to effect s junction with the Second Army, instead of prosecuting the advance on Moukden, having cleared the routes of China's forces. General Tachimi's Brigade has rejoined the main army, Marshal Yamagata's bead-puarters are still at Chinlien. The following vessels were seized inside Post Arthur when the place was captured:-Two torpedo boats, two merchant coasters, and one | Monday. It is estimated that our visitors will small cruiser (building).

THE FIGHTING IN MANCHURIA THE JAPANESE REPULSED WITH GREAT SLAUGHTER.

News was received here by wire last night from [Tientsin by our native contemporar] the Trun Wan Yat Po to the effect that on the 26th ultimo General Nieh's division attacked the Japanese at Linsan Pass and drove them back to Function, which is about half way between the bistorical city of Mounden and the

On the 6th instent Nich followed up his victory and succeeded in dislodging the enemy who had fortified Fungtien Pass, and after desperate engagement lasting from sunrise to 3 p.m., succeeded in driving the Japanese as far as Chuhosho, to the south, and occupied the Pass, thus effectually checking the advance of the First Army Corps on Moukden.

General Nieh, according to these advices, awaiting reinforcements of cavalry and artillery before attempting to drive the [apanese over th Yaloo. In the meantime Moukden is said to perfectly safe, the Japanese being at least. hundred miles to the south of that city.

A decree has been issued by the Emperor China confirming this news and giving minu details of the engagements.

MURDER AND SUICIDE AT THE "CENTRAL."

At the Magistracy this morning Mr. H. E. Wodehouse continued the inquiry into the circumstances attending the death of Serain Singh, 25 years of age, who as reported in these columns on the 7th, shot a Chinese constable at the Central Police Station on Thursday last and then committed suicide.

With the exception of the statement made by Mr. G. Horspool, Acting Captain Superintendent of Police, that the deceased Sikh applied to him twice on the 6th instant for thirty round of ammunition which he rejused to grant owing to the form of application being irregular and that bus knew of me reason why the Sikh should have shot lukong No. 140, very little light was thrown upon the subject by any of the witnesses examined. That appeared to the witness to be certain. because the man's clothing was singed in the immediate vicinity of the wound below the chest,

His Worship closed the inquiry at p.m. He said- I find that the deceased Chinese constable No. 140 owed his death to the effects of a bullet fired intentionally at him by the deceased Serain Singh, who at the same time met with his death, by inflicting a builet wound on his own person with Intent to commit suicide. There is no evidence to show whether the deceased Sorain Singh was or was not in his right mind at the time, and there is no evidence forthcoming to explain the reason of his action towards the deceased Chinese constable No. 140.

The trial of Games Canham Read on a charge of murdering a girl named Florrie Dennis, at South End on June 24, was concluded at Chelmsford Assizes, before Baron Pollock, today. The judge summed up briefly, and it putting the case to the jury impressed them with the necessity of being just and not be influenced by the evidence regarding the immoral habits of the prisoner.

The jury retired, and after an hour's deliberation returned into court with a verdict

The prisoner remained calm, and heard the verdict without apparent concern. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence o death should not be passed, he made a calm and deliberate speech. He declared that he had not seen Florrie Dennis for two years previous to the murder. He had never during that period written to her, and had had no communication whatever with her. He never fired the revolver at the woman, and the witness Ayrish, on whose evidence the Crown case chiefly depended, had told a pack of lies. The two had been engaged in a price fight, when Riordan was struck senseless with a blow on the chin, and died without regaining consciousness. November 10th. A fatal diving adventure occurred yesterday. A man named Fuller, who has been giving diving exhibitions for some time, ascended the roof of the new Tower Bridge to a height of 340 ft. from the river. He had arranged to dive into the river from the height. He leaped forth, and fell like a stone into the water, which covered him for a time. He was soon seen to rise to the surface, but before the boats walting to rescue him could get near him, he sank out of sight and was seen no more. The boat sought him in valu, and the police are now engaged in dragging the river for the body.

THE ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR.

A correspondent contributes to the N. C. Daily News the following interesting account of the fall of Port Arthur, confirming previous statements as to the dastardly atrocities committed on the defencaless Chinese by the "civilised" soldiery of enlighted Japan :--

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

The following notes are taken from recent issues of our Shanghai morning contemporary:-General Nich Sze-ch'en according to native reports from Manchuria, has gained several successes in Manchuris, in the vicinity of Motienling, against the Japanese. But as the troops under his spicial command have dwindled down to only four or five thousand men, it is feared that he will not be able to distinguish himself much unless the Throne places another 10,000 men under him. The Chinese officials who know General Nich, declare he is the best officer now in Manchuria.

A Taotal named Hall, specially ordered by edict to examine and report upon the fighting capabilities of the Pelyang fleet, has been in Tientsin for the past month or so, trying to magistrate's yamen, ir solently remarking that ressuade the Viceroy Li to order the Pelyang fleet to come up to Taku in order to enable him to perform his mission. > The statement that emanated from Chefoo that the body of a foreigner had been discovered at Port Arthur appears to have been without foundation. The Norwegian named Oberggiven by the Chefoo Express as Anberg-who proceeded to Port Arthur with Mr. Hart, returned to Chefoo in the Æolus. Mr. Hart himself was arrested by the Japanese before he reached Port Arthur, so that he never landed there while the place was held by the Chinese-perhaps - fortunately for himself. CHRFOO NOTES.,

A correspondent writes to the N. C. Daily

Name on November 20th :---The British fleet was seen yesterday at steam tactics s me distance out to see, afterwards pissing away to the north. The Archer leaves to-day for Chemulpo and a cruise round the ports of Formoss, and then goes to Hongkong to pay off. The German cruiser Alexandrine has passed through to the south. The Molus has just arrived from Port Arthur. The French men-of-war Bayard and Lion, and the Russian cruiser Kreysser are still here.

Kung Taotal, of Port Arthus, arrived some days ago and is going on to Tientsin, and Captain Calder, the late Harbour Master, is still a resident here. Mr. Hart, Reuter's agent. left some time ago for Port Arthur in a small junk taking Mr. Oberg, a Chefoo resident, with him as sailing master. Mr. Oberg returned to-day in the Zolus and rep its that Mr. Hart is a prisoner with the Ispanese, who intend to detain him for some little time in order that they may supervise his correspondence. The accident to the Chinyson at Wel-bal-well on the 16th inst. has turned out to be very serious. The damage extends on both sides of the ship over forty of her frames. The ship has a double bottom and the outer bottom plating on each sideris ripped up, but on the port engineroom compartment the framing and engine scating is forced up to such an extent that the Inner skin is broken, and that compartment getting flooded the ship listed over to port until the main deck was in the water. The ship has been beached and some temporary repairs effected by foreign divers. The officers and crew seem to have been paralysed by the disaster and to be utterly without tesource unless it is of the kind adopted by Li Tal-tsan. With only the repairs that can be effected in Wei-hal-wei, it will be a risky thing taking the ship to any dock, and it would take a first-class establishment about two months to repair her.

TSINGKIANOPU.

("N. C. DAILY NEWS " CORRESPONDENT.) November 27th. Since your correspondent's last letter thousands of soldler have been pouring through this city going to the war. Among them were the fu bigo of Kiangai and Aphul, the special troops of the Governor of those two provinces. These regiments were detained for several days, unable to secure carts or barrows, and there were some grave exceptions to the uniformly quiet behaviour of the soldiers. Several fights courred between the Hunan and Klangel and Aubul braves, who are very lealous of each other. It is said that two fungling threatened each other in the presence of the Taotal, who was endeavouring to parch up a quarrel about carts. No means of transportation could be secured for some new Gatling guns, and the soldiers in charge took the guns with the caissons to the as he had falled to secure carts for them, the guns would be deposited in his hall, to be for-Door magistrate was Aukis (scared to death). but the Tisactal came to his relief and sent the men and guns on their way. Some of these magistrate's vamen to carry their baggage north: with their horsewhips, and the magistrate was powerless to prevent it. Such is Chinese military discipline! A Klangel soldier who threatened violence to a woman, was condemned to death, but at the intercession of a sayes, his life was spared, and his ears were taken off instead. On the afternoon of November 10th one of our missionaries was returning from the north, when he was met on the bighway about 40 li who demanded his cart. On his offering resistance, they set upon him with a carrying pole, and struck him several severa blows. threatening also to kill him with a sword, which one of them carried. The foreigner was forced to beat a hasty setreat, and the soldiers after emptying his, luggage into the road, took possession of the cart and horse, and proceeded on their journey. The magistrate of this city was applied to for assistance, but alleged his inability to do anything in the case. Liu Kun-yl, the Viceroy of the Linngikians provinces, reached this city at noon on the sain the OFFICERS COMM NDING the BAT. of November amid the menel display to bunting TERY and COMPANY. on his fourney north.
